FRIDAY / MARCH 11

2nd SHOW ADDED!

Friday & Saturday, March 11 & 12 at 7:00 pm

The Eagles is an American country rock band that became one of the world's best-selling bands of all time, having sold more than 150 million records. Hotel California was the band's fifth studio album in 1976 and a best-seller with over 32 million copies sold worldwide. Three singles were released from the album - "New Kid in Town" and "Hotel California" both hit No. 1 on Billboard and won Grammy Awards, and "Life in the Fast Lane" was a huge hit as well. The album's iconic cover is a photograph of the Beverly Hills Hotel by David Alexander.

This will be the fourth Ritz concert appearance by Black Jacket Symphony, who has built a huge regional fan base in response to their extraordinary symphonic approach to recreating classic rock albums note for note and sound for sound. Contractually, BJS requires advance sales for the next booked show to begin at intermission of the concert at hand. As a result, the March 12 "Hotel California" concert sold out quickly last fall. Yet we are thrilled for the opportunity to schedule a second March 11 concert.

With the recent untimely death of Eagles co-founder/lead singer Glenn Frey, public reflection on the band's lofty status in American music history is at a peak and this second concert is a certain sell-out. Hurry!

SPECIAL FILM SCREENING EVENT

Woodlawn, the motion picture, is based on true events surrounding the 1974 Banks and Woodlawn football game at Birmingham's Legion Field. The historic game still holds the record for the largest attendance at an Alabama high school football game. The film follows Woodlawn running back Tony Nathan's recruitment by the legendary Alabama football coach Paul "Bear" Bryant (played by Academy Award winner Jon Voight) during a period when the state was embroiled in racial tensions.

This film was shot on location in Birmingham and produced and directed by Jon and Andy Erwin, whose father is the real-life chaplain character in the movie. National film critics typically are not kind to faith-based, inspirational films, yet Woodlawn laid waste to convention with almost universal critical acclaim for this real-life story. Equally vital to an independent film's success is fan reviews and word of mouth, Woodlawn ranked among the most favorable in all national fan review polls for major films released in 2015.

With great excitement, join our celebration of The Ritz' major capital investment to upgrade capacity to screen films which will be unveiled with Woodlawn - a new automatic full-proscenium screen, surround-sound, digital soundboard and projector. Films at The Ritz are going to be a whole new ballgame!

"The overall narrative mix of history lesson, gridiron action and spiritual uplift is effectively and satisfyingly sustained." - Variety

DIRECT FROM HIT BROADWAY RUN

ADAM TRENT
THE FUTURIST

Adam Trent is one of the most in-demand young illusionists working today, and was a star in record-breaking runs of The Illusionists on Broadway in 2014 and 2015. With over 300 sold-out appearances a year, Trent has been described as "Justin Timberlake meets David Copperfield" due to his high-energy, interactive performances which are part magic, part concert, and part stand-up comedy.

Adam Trent is "a long way from the state magicians of the past," says the Associated Press, blending hip dancing and singing of his original pop music, innovative stage illusions, charming wit, and kinetic energy that fuels an entertainment experience you'll be talking about for years. Not only is Trent one of the youngest international award-winning magicians in history, U.S. News & World Report named him "One of the Ten Most Influential Youths in America". He is also the recipient of the "Men in Pink Award" from the Susan G. Komen Foundation for the Top Ten Men who have stood up to cancer.

You can't miss the show audiences are calling "thrilling," "surprising," "funny" and "extremely entertaining." And definitely, do not leave the kids at home. Adam Trent: The Futurist has genuine heart and mesmerizes everyone!
